

Introduction & Course Content

The overview of the Worksite Hazard Management Training comprises of 10 modules, carefully designed passive absorption learning. Active involvement in class, talking with colleagues and reflecting on “How do I apply this?”

Explains why this course and its follow-up activities matter to you.

- List the “training participant” behaviours that will help you really learn.
- Recognize the cost of incidents
- Describe the current and desired safety culture at the site
- Describe the topics that will be covered in the course
- Course participant will be able to apply common basic Safety Tools
- Work leader and Member has skill and knowledge to plan, identify, assess, put controls and eliminate hazards
- Roles and responsibilities
- Simulated plenary exercises
- Adult learning approach
- Learning from others

Program Designed For

- This Worksite Hazard Management Training for Front-line Supervisor Course provides best fit to personnel ranging from “floor-shop level”, Supervisors, Work leaders and enthusiast personnel aiming for personal development to managing Safety at Work-site in all industries.

Training Methodology

- Classroom, Presentation Slides, Audio & Visual, Flip chart, Plenary.

Duration

3 Days

Your Instructor

Simon Augustine

Minimum Pax

6 Pax